Greetings in the name of the Lord, Jesus Christ!

Brokenness is all around us. Whether I have encountered it in the news, the stories of those I am privileged to listen to, or the happenings of my own life there always seem to be wounds—some exposed and in the open, some hidden by attempts to keep them secret. Throw in the pressure that we so often feel from society, others, and ourselves to be “put together” and for “everything to be fine” and we have a good recipe for self-doubt, sadness, and exhaustion.

This can often bleed into how we live together as a faith community. We hold expectations of ourselves and others to be perfect or strive to maintain standards that each person sets for themselves, often forcing these standards on others. Judgment results, of ourselves and others, and judgment turns into lack of trust—in ourselves, in one another, and sometimes in God. We cling to what we have done before on account hindsight being 20/20 and our glorification of how great things used to be—as if we were not broken before—because that gives us a sense of security, though it be a false one. How can we expect ourselves to be perfect while we are broken? How can we expect our community to be perfect, in the various ways that we might define “perfect,” if we are not willing to be authentic with who we are, how we are feeling, and what is going on in our lives and the world around us? Yet, we are afraid of exposing our brokenness.

In writing about the ministry with which we are entrusted as the people of God and followers of Christ, Apostle Paul writes:

“Therefore, since it is by God’s mercy that we are engaged in this ministry, we do not lose heart... For it is the God who said, ‘Light will shine out of darkness’ who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way but not crushed, perplexed but not driven to despair, persecuted but not forsaken, struck down but not destroyed, always carrying around in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies.”

~ II Corinthians 4.1, 6-10

We are clay jars; we crack, break, even shatter easily. Yet the light of Christ shines in us and through us, even through our cracks, into the world. On account of this, not only can we face our own brokenness and the brokenness of the world, we can dare to be broken together. Together, with all of our broken and shattered pieces held together by the grace of God, we can be—no, we are—a community that reflects God’s love into the world, not by our own power, but by the power of God that is at work within us. As a broken community, with our wounds exposed, we can and will experience the healing that comes only from God—the God of grace and love, the God of the cross, the God who creates life out of death. It is in our being community together, broken and beloved, that we become a balm for the healing of our broader community, our nation, our world.

In the certain hope of healing and wholeness,

Pastor Dan

Confirmation & GLOW

God's Love on Wednesdays (GLOW) continues into 2024!! October & November were full of scary (& not so scary) costumes, a party, valuable lessons learned and even a surprise for Pastor Dan as we sang him his very own song!! We go into the Holidays continuing our lessons on the stories of the Bible complete with our Children's Christmas Concert on December 20th at 7:00 p.m. with a practice the week prior on the 13th! We hope you all can come and join us in our performance and celebrations.

... As always a free dinner is offered at 5:15 p.m., class at 6:00 p.m. and worship at 7:00-7:30 p.m. Parents are encouraged to stay with their children for any or all of the evening. For more information, contact the office at 563/547-2108. You can sign up to join us at ANY TIME during the year!!

NEW SAFETY MEASURES - ADDITIONAL HELP NEEDED!!

We are ALWAYS looking for adults to help with Kitchen help, Teaching in the classrooms or simply Support throughout the evening. BUT, We also need a special sort of help this year...we are looking for ADULT assistance to sit in on classrooms to simply be "present" for the teachers. You can bring a book to read, knit, crochet or simply "catch up on emails"... but we need an adult of the "opposite sex" in each of our GLOW and Confirmation classrooms as a Safety Measure we are implementing ... so we NEED YOU!!! Between 6-7 p.m. on any Wednesday would be appreciated! With enough volunteers, a rotating schedule will be created! ANY AGE adult would be perfect!!

Remember to bring in your NOISY (LOUD) OFFERINGS!!

Any change you find laying around makes a ton of fun dropping it into our metal cans during Wednesday night offering!! The children have set a goal of $1000 to cover presents for THE GIVING TREE!! Please feel free to drop a few coins into the Noisy Offering Cans each Wednesday or Sunday during worship!!

Young Adult Gathering

JULY 16–20, 2024

What is the ELCA Youth Gathering?

Every three years, thousands of high school youth and their adult leaders from across the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America gather for a week of faith formation and fellowship known as the ELCA Youth Gathering. Through inspiring speakers, conversations with partners, Bible study and being immersed in the host city, young people will be inspired, challenged and called to live out their faith in their daily lives.
